NO SUMMER SCHOOL WILL BE HELD IN
LAWRENCE COUNTYCounty Board of Education
Decides Against the Proposition For This Year.

The County Board of Education met on Wednesday of this week. The question of a summer training school for teachers was brought up and by a vote of three to two it was decided to not have it.

The law provides that each county may have a school of this kind each year if the county board will appropriate half the cost of the instructor or instructors. The State Board appoints the instructors. In the event the county board refuses to enter into the arrangement the teachers of the county may either attend a summer school in some other county or teach for six dollars per month less salary. The county institutes have been abolished and the summer schools are provided in order to place facilities within easy reach of all teachers to make progress in their profession and become better equipped each year.

If the teachers of Lawrence county do not attend a summer school it means that they will receive $4368.00 less from the State for next year's work than otherwise they would get. But this is a small consideration compared to the increased efficiency and enthusiasm that would result from attendance upon the summer school.

Lawrence county had a summer school last year and it seems that up to about two weeks ago the sentiment of the officials was favorable to it for this year. It was stated in the meeting Wednesday that friction in regard to a certain private interest was entering into this matter. When the discussion indicated that the man who had been proposed by the State Department as instructor was not satisfactory to that certain interest, a proposition was made to have an outside instructor sent here, and a guarantee was given the board that this would be done.

in Boyd County Trial

Harry Thompson, of Meade's Station, was found not guilty of the murder of Miss Ethel Darby, 17, of Ashland for which he was indicted, when the jury returned the verdict in the circuit court at Catlettsburg Wednesday after 30 minutes deliberation.

The facts are those which have been testified, that the four young folks, John Tussay, Ernest Hunt, Audrey Young and Miss Darby were driving on the Midland Trail toward Cannonsburg on the night of April 25 and at a point near Meade's Station a shot was fired and Miss Darby was killed the bullet entering the back of her head.

F. H. YATES OPENS REALTY
OFFICES IN ASHLAND

Sunday's Ashland Independent contained the following:

Frank Yates, sales manager for the Park Hill Realty Company, and who this week came here from Louisa to live, announced last night he had opened the company's offices in the Elam building on Winchester avenue between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets.

Three rooms have been leased and are being fitted up to take care of the company's transactions in selling the 175 acres it recently bought from the Kentucky Iron, Coal & Manufacturing Company, lying between Eighteenth and Twenty-seventh streets, including the old Country Club property and the hill top section above Hilton avenue.

Mr. Yates announced a landscape architect from Cleveland will be here tomorrow to begin work on laying out the streets and driveways in the project. The plan will be an original one, said Mr. Yates, calling for curved roadways and getting from the old type of right angled street plans.

Louisa would very much regret to lose Mr. Yates and his family and we hope they may find it possible and desirable to keep their residence here. The Ashland men has made no mistake in getting Mr. Yates interested in their large project and in placing it in his hands. He is already on the job at Ashland.

Floyd County Couple
Married in Louisa

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church South, in Louisa, when Mr. Charles William Strader and Mrs. Ethel Shannon Hutchison were united in marriage.

Rev. J. D. Bell officiated. Mr. Strader is located at Garth, Ky. He is a son of Dr. T. D. Strader, who for many years has been a preacher in the Holston Virginia conference. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Shannon. They now live at Drift, Floyd county, but were former residents of Lawrence county.

Mr. and Mrs. Strader will reside at Garth.

MISS RIFFE WEDS
IN WASHINGTON

A wedding of interest to a large number of friends of the bride who formerly lived in this county was celebrated in Baltimore, Md., on Wednesday evening, May 10, when the hearts and lives of Miss Mearie Riffe and Mr. Wharton A. Nichols were united.

Accompanied by a party of relatives and friends the couple left Washington, D. C. about six o'clock that evening in automobiles and drove to Baltimore. They were married at half past eight o'clock in the Brantley Baptist church at that place by the Rev. Dr. H. M. Wharton, uncle of the groom. The impressive ring ceremony was used.

The handsome bride wore a modish suit of tan covert cloth with accessories harmonizing and carried a bouquet of Ward roses and lilies of the valley.

Soon after the ceremony the bride and groom left for an extensive wedding journey, going to Philadelphia, Atlantic City and other eastern points. After June 1 they will be at home at 32 Sycamore street, Takoma Park, Md.

Miss Riffe has been in Washington the past few years where she has held a position in a government office since she enlisted for service in the navy department in the World war. At that time she was in Bowling Green attending a business college. She resigned the position last Saturday to be married.

She is one of Lawrence county's most attractive and charming young women. She is popular in Louisa, having attended school here and frequently visited relatives. She is a half sister of Judge Billie Riffe, H. H. and W. E. Queen and Mrs. B. D. Lambert. If Lawrence county were called upon to offer a woman measuring up to Kentucky's reputation for general attractiveness, combining intellectual qualities, strength of character, gracious disposition, modesty, and beauty, Mrs. Nichols would meet the specifications.

Mr. Nichols' home was at Luray, Va. He was graduated from the schools in that city. In 1917 he enlisted in the army and served with the 116th Infantry, 29th Division, as Regimental Sergeant-Major in the Intelligence Division and was overseas a year. He is now employed with the Purchase of Provisions and Clothing for the navy department. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nichols, who reside at 1018 North Capitol street, Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols upon their return from their honeymoon will go to housekeeping at once in the new home he recently purchased and furnished.

Royal Arch Masons
Have Fine Meeting

Perhaps the largest and most enjoyable meeting the Royal Arch Masons ever had in Louisa was held on last Friday night at the Masonic hall. The occasion was in honor of the visit of Dr. P. G. The programs were rendered in the Auditorium Theatre. One hundred harpists played at one time.

Mrs. Franklin, formerly Miss Myrtle Chapman of this place, had the pleasure of playing in two large concerts at this convention. She was also elected secretary and treasurer of the organization for the state of Kentucky chapter.

While in Chicago she had an invitation to join a company of three ladies to play the harp for six weeks next fall. She expects to go to New York and practice a few weeks before starting with them.

EASTERN KENTUCKY
LEASES LOOK GOODRecent Wells Drilled in Prove Up Undeveloped
Acreage in Magoffin
County.

The bringing in of a good well two hundred feet from the Fred Lemaster lease owned by The Wiser Oil Company and Petroleum Exploration in Magoffin county, Kentucky, practically proves up this acreage and makes it look as if the entire 185 acres in the Lemaster tract will be productive. The well was drilled in on March 21 by Holbrook and Reed, on the J. S. Borders farm and was estimated at better than ten barrels a day. No. 2 is now drilling by the same company which should also be a producer. A location has been made by the Cumberland Petroleum Company and a well will be started immediately by that company on a lease adjoining the south end of a 98-acre tract held by the Trico companies which, if productive, will make the entire block of leases look exceedingly good for oil.

The Magoffin county operations of the companies have thus far proven very successful. Out of forty-five wells drilled everyone has been a producer. This fact, together with proving up the undeveloped acreage, makes the future operations in this field appear unusually good.

Conditions in eastern Kentucky at the present time are rather quiet, due largely to the impassable roads. None of the larger oil companies have begun active campaigns for the summer as yet. The rainy weather and bad roads make it impossible to move rigs or supplies to the leases, indications however, show that there will be a large amount of drilling done in this section of Kentucky during the year and practically every section will be given a thorough test for oil.

Mayo Trail Will Not be Surfaced This Year

It seems from newspaper reports that a request was made, from some source not generally known, to put the hard surface on seven miles of the Mayo Trail in Lawrence county, from the Boyd county line toward Louisa. The following item from Frankfort is the first that was known of the proposition at Louisa:

Frankfort.—Hard surface will not be applied to the Mayo trail until the road has been entirely graded and drained by the State highway commission. It decided after the federal government engineer registered a protest against hard surfacing the road at present.

LANGLEY HAS A FIGHT
THIS YEAR TO HOLD
JOB AT WASHINGTONOpposition Has Agreed Upon a Letcher County Man to Lead Contest.

The following political gossip about the Tenth district situation is from the Louisville column of the Cincinnati Enquirer:

"From the Tenth District comes the report that the political life of Congressman John W. Langley is in danger this fall, a condition which probably is responsible for the early campaigning which Mr. Langley is doing among his constituents by means of the United States mail. The danger to Mr. Langley lies in his party, where a determined fight is being organized to take the nomination away from him. Mr. Langley is dean of the Kentucky delegation in Congress in point of service.

The anti-Langley force have been gathering strength for years waiting for what they regarded as the opportunity to seek the scalp of an apparently unbeatable district leader. From their viewpoint the time now is ripe. They base this belief upon the happenings of last fall when a coalition with the Democrats administered a defeat to the Langley organization in Pike and Letcher counties, the largest in the state.

With this nucleus an organization was built to contain such men as Jas. A. Scott, member of the State Tax Commission; R. Monros Flelds, former Commonwealth's Attorney of the Pike-Letcher district; Edward L. Allen, Prestonsburg, former member of the Legislature, and others of equal prominence. They united on Calloway W. Napier, Hazard, present Commonwealth's Attorney of the Leslie-Owsley-Perry district, to oppose Mr. Langley for the Republican congressional nomination. Mr. Napier accepted the gage of battle and now is at work perfecting an organization.

Mr. Langley is alive to the situation, and if he loses it will not be due to a lack of fight. He is expected to return in a few weeks to devote all his time to a vigorous speaking campaign.

The Tenth district is composed of Floyd, Jackson, Johnson, Knott, Letcher, Magoffin, Martin, Owsley, Perry and Pike counties. Pike is Mr. Langley's home county, but the Napier element expects to carry it. This county probably will develop into the battlefield that will decide the entire district. The most encouraging thing that has happened for the Langley forces is the entry into the race of Fess Whittaker, noted "faded feller." Whittaker says he is in the race to stay, but when his name is mentioned it usually is in connection with his effect upon the Napier-Langley contest. It is agreed that this is helpful to Mr. Langley, for if the opposition to the incumbent is divided it is bound to help him."

New Laws in Regard to Kentucky Schools

Some of the new legislation which was put in the Statutes as a result of the last session of the Legislature in school matters was as follows:

The State Department received an appropriation of $45,000 for the organization and maintenance of a professional staff, more than three times the former allowances.

The minimum rural school term was increased from six to seven months. An appropriation of $50,000 was made to organize and maintain summer training schools for teachers.

A bill was passed authorizing the establishment of two additional normal schools, and $60,000 annually devoted to maintaining them.

Existing normal schools were changed to colleges at which students may procure academic degrees.

The code governing graded schools was improved, and such schools were authorized to levy a local tax of $1.25 per $100 instead of the former maximum, 75 cents.

The maximum school levy in second-class cities was raised from 65 cents to 75 cents.

IN REMEMBRANCE

Come! was the call of our Heavenly Father which cast adieu over the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kay. Cooksey when their darling baby was taken from their home.

Little Dora Virginia was a bright little baby. She was born September 28, 1921 and departed this life May 4, 1922. Oh how lonely we are without our darling and how long are the days since she left us. She is gone, but not forgotten. Of course we have a great desire to make heaven our home as little Dora Virginia is there. She is on love's eternal shore where sickness will never occur.

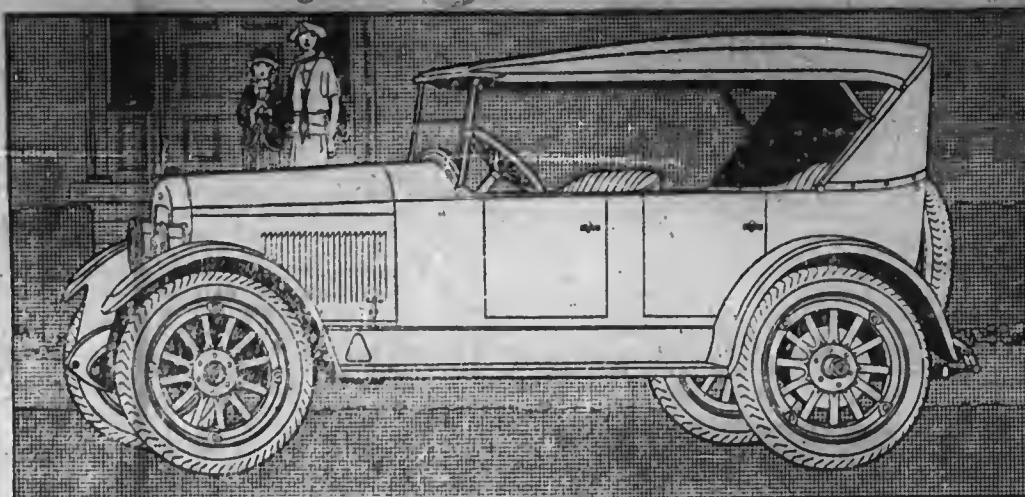

She leaves to mourn the loss a father, mother and one brother. There was a place in heaven that only little Dora Virginia could fill and now she is resting sweetly in the arms of her Savior. Patiently in heaven she is waiting.

All was done for her that loving hands could do, but God knew best and so He called her home to rest.

I had a little treasure once, She was our joy and pride; We loved her oh, perhaps too well, For soon she slept and died. All is dark within our dwelling, Lonely are our hearts today, For the one we loved so dearly Has forever passed away.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce H. C. DUFFY, of Harrison county, as a candidate for Representative in Congress from the Ninth Kentucky District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce W. J. FIELDS, of Carter county, as a candidate for the nomination for Congress in the Ninth District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the primary election to be held on Saturday, August 5, 1922.

The announcement of Congressman Fields for re-election appears in the NEWS this week. He is well known to this people of the 9th district as a faithful official.

Home coming week for Lawrence county next fall is a popular suggestion, judging by the expressions heard on all sides. It is not too early to receive lists of persons who have moved away and also suggestions as to details of the affair. The Big Sandy News will be glad to receive all such matter and will turn it over to the proper committees after they shall have been selected.

The managers for Senator New, of Indiana, in the campaign for renomination last week, waged the battle on the ground that the vindication of President Harding was at stake. He lost and now the managers hasten to declare that the result is not a slap at the President. Consistency is a jewel not found amongst the treasures of politicians.

The new Eastern Kentucky Normal School belongs within the district covered by the association of counties formed some time ago with Jno. E. Buckingham as president. The proposition from the very beginning contemplated its location in this section. The representatives of the philanthropic organization that has made such a generous offer for this school have investigated the situation fully and reported that the school should be located in the eastern border territory. This report was made by unbiased men from outside the State, men who are free to look at the situation as it now exists, and competent to see as far into the future as possible. They see the development of the boundless mineral wealth just starting; the increase in population going forward by leaps and bounds; the crying need for better educational facilities at our doors. They have studied the character of the native population and noted the pure strain of Anglo-Saxon blood running through this people. They have weighed the importance of educating them so that they may take hold of the development of their own country rather than leaving this work to the advent of foreigners; and that their fine native ability may be turned into channels that best serve their state and nation.

Unfortunately, a situation has arisen that threatens to defeat the primary objects of this most laudable enterprise. The full power of the strong organization now functioning on this matter will be used to prevent a mistake of that kind.

H. C. DUFFY

Announced Candidate for Congress in Ninth District.

Hon. H. C. Duffy, of Harrison county, has formally announced as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congressman in the Ninth District, following a series of conferences with prominent party men from different counties who have been insistent that he enter the race. Although Mr. Duffy has represented this county in the Legislature for ten years, he has never sought office. The office has always sought him. He was Speaker of the House at Frankfort in the legislative session of 1916, and the special session of 1917, and has a wide acquaintance over the State.

H. C. DUFFY

Mr. Duffy lives on his farm a few miles from Cynthiana, and farming is his occupation. While a young man in Tennessee he graduated in law at the University of Virginia and practiced for some time in the courts of Tennessee, but, failing in health, retired to the farm, and has continued as a farmer. He has been called by the Democrats of Harrison county to be their candidate for the Legislature on five occasions, and has won his spurs at Frankfort.

Now, says Mr. Duffy, he has had so many letters and inquiries from counties of the district and the pressure to take up the standard of old-fashioned democracy has become so strong, that he feels he should accede to the wishes of his friends and enter the lists. He is an old-fashioned Democrat, there can be no doubt of that. He does not believe in fads and "isms." He stands for the faith of the fathers of the party; he is deeply grounded in the principles of government as proclaimed by Jefferson. He does not believe in usurpation by the general government of powers and duties delegated to the States. He does not believe in State governments arrogating the powers and duties of county and local governments. He does not believe in increasing restriction of individual rights. He is opposed to the growth of Federal power, and recognizes it as insidious and hard to combat.

Indications lead to the belief that the people of the whole country are growing anxious for the safety and perpetuation of our government as a true democracy. The signs of the times are unmistakable that there is a widespread desire to get back to the simple principles of government under which the country thrived and grew strong and his friends believe Mr. Duffy is the one man in this district who best embodies and who can best defend the liberty and interests of the people.

Reports from the mountain counties indicate that the Democrats of that section will welcome a candidate from Harrison county, which for many years has been the Gibraltar of the district and which has never been honored with a nomination. The old feeling of sectionalism has been abolished. The district stands as a unit against the aggressions of the Republican party on the rights of the people, and the incident of a candidate's residence will no longer be taken into consideration. What is wanted is the man who represents what the people desire in government.

Mr. Duffy proposes to make a clean fight for the nomination. He is not given to abusing opponents. He never did it. He will form such organizations as are necessary for a proper handling of his campaign; he will present his views in a calm, dispassionate, straightforward way, and leave the question of who shall be Congressman to the judgment of the voters of the district.—Cynthiana Democrat.

GRIFFITHS CREEK.

Perhaps it is that Dutch blood courses through my veins and again it may come from the fact that when I do try to farm I endeavor to produce the most crop with the least "draw bar pull," namely effort, have noted and stored a few facts that may be a benefit to some one during the coming season. Usual articles in modern farm papers are all right in theory but in practice are given out in terms and in such gigantic ways as to make a mountain farmer feel in reading them that he had been left out in the cold but such is not always the case, whether your crop be in the mountains or in the big corn belt there are a few general rules if followed, greatly increase your pile of corn or other crops. An old saying that "a crop put in the ground right was half raised" was not far from right. Then again it is much easier to prepare a good seed bed in the balmy days of spring than to fight hostile weeds in July and it is a sure fact that if a proper seed bed is made and a crop is planted cultivation is a much smaller item. Next to the seed bed comes a dust mulch which should be maintained throughout the growing season. A dust mulch is nothing more than a thin blanket of soft earth two or more inches deep through which the dampness stored up in old mother earth cannot escape easy to the air above. Lay a plank down on a piece of hard, dry ground and go back in a couple of days and you will find the ground damp beneath and the dirt loose. Why? Because the dampness from the earth that was drawn to the surface by the heat of the sun could not escape. A dust mulch of course does not do the job as thorough as a plank but shallow and frequent cultivation to a great extent does this very thing. To let corn grow three weeks and then use long plows enough to cover up weeds regardless of the corn roots that are running across the rows is what goes a long way to make our mountain counties import counties instead of export ones. I carried on a test of shallow frequent cultivation for three years, using nothing but a garden plow for its cultivation. When ears of corn were ripened and hard enough to shell from the cob the fodder was green to the ground. Thinking I was using too fertile ground for my tests I transferred my test plot to the cornfield selecting five rows on upper side of field. This was all turned and prepared together, except the cultivation which was done entirely with the garden plow and as the ground was too rolling to plow both ways I used a garden rake for tearing out weeds between the hills, pulling with my hands from hills. The third year test was like the others. So much was the difference in size and height that it looked like two different plantings. Now I am not advocating no garden plow, hand rake farming, but only used these tools that I might know absolutely that nothing but the mulch was disturbed.

I have seen men who ought to know better plowing corn for the third time with as long a plow as they could get hold of, plowing within three inches of corn while multitudes of fine corn roots hang out in the air, broken in two and then wonder why their corn was so chaffy and the fodder "fired" so bad, saying "I worked my corn good three times and haven't over a half crop" when they should have said I raised about half crop in spite of what I did to my corn.

While in another State a few years ago I noticed a peculiar state of condition of the soil. I asked the farmer the cause. His reply was that it had been an awful dry summer and after four cultivations it was so dry that he, his three sons and the hired man had taken the wheels off their two mowing machines and singled them out and gone over their 110 acres twice in this way dragging each wheel with a horse. You might say this of no use but his corn attested to the fact that he had increased his corn ten bushels or more per acre.

Go under a river bank after high water had receded and you will find a crust first forms on mud and which soon fills with cracks running in every direction, through these the dampness of the ground beneath escapes to the air above, keep a lot of this crust for a few days and you will have a quagmire under it when all the other ground is thoroughly dried out. Note a corn field after a rain and you will find the same conditions on a smaller scale. Keep your corn land stirred up frequently to sufficient depth to prevent this crust forming and often enough to keep weeds from getting a start and you have done all that is necessary to raise a prize crop. Four cultivations with the same "draw bar pull" on old Dobbin as three under old methods would increase by many hundreds of bushels the yearly corn crop of old Lawrence. MUTT.

ALVIS MAYNARD DIES AT HOME IN ALEX

Alvis Maynard, an old, well known highly respected citizen of Alex, Ky., died at his home in that town Sunday.

Deceased was born on the homestead upon which he died on February 1, 1844, and was therefore a little more than 78 years of age at the time of his death. All his life he had resided in the same community seeing his family grow up about him, taking active part in the affairs of his section and holding the esteem and regard of neighbors and friends.

They Are Especially Desirable For Street Wear

Every frock in the collection has been reduced from a much higher figure—and every garment is as desirable as expert designing and worthy materials can make it. They are fashioned from crepe-knit, Canton and Taffeta—the most wanted summer fabrics, and so cleverly developed as to combine the most recent of accepted style features. They are especially desirable for street wear and may be chosen in either the light or subdued colorings—green, periwinkle, henna, brown, jade, cardinal, blue and black.

Simply or Elaborately Trimmed Models

Trimming effects are at wide variance—some models accomplish an air of smartness through their simplicity of line and trimming, while other more elaborate effects depend upon one or another of the new forms of decoration for their beauty. Contrast pipings, beads, ruffles, fabric flowers, fancy cord and bead washes and hand embroidery are some of the most used effects.

In choosing, one may consider basque and cape effects, tunic styles as well as a good variety of straight-line models. Sizes 16 to 40. 2nd floor

Home Coming
Suggestion Brings
a Hearty Response

Lexington, Ky., May 11, 1922.
Editor of the Big Sandy News:
Your suggestion in the last edition of the Big Sandy News that a home coming week in honor of all exiles from the dear old town of Louisa be arranged for, will, I am sure, meet with a responsive chord in the hearts of all those who are fortunate enough to have ever lived in that beautiful little town on the banks of the Big Sandy.

May we venture to suggest a few names that come welling into memory at the thought of such a gathering. In giving the list of these names we are omitting all titles; the married names of our former girls and even Mr. Mrs. and Miss. Here they are as we used to know them in the long ago:

Mary, Kittle, George and Milton Wroten, Amanda and Lizzie Yates, Taylor, and Alice McClure, Sarah, Hiram and Mary Bloss, Taylor and Belle Vinson, Ida, Ada and John Rice, Thura and Lizzie Burns, Lullie and Boyd Ferguson, John and Neva Stewart, Fred Gallup, Fred and Blanche Moore, Phoebe and Emma Northup, Bascom Butler, Sam Freese, Mart Conley, Frank Reynolds, George and Jim Chrey, Will, Dick and John Johnson, Henry, Carrie and Bessie Snyder, Arch and George William McClure, George M. McClure, Jeanne McClure, Victor Muncy, Fred Shannon, D. J. and "Chubbie" Burchett, Leo Frank, Owen Garred, Lou McClure, Mary Chapman, George Chapman, Emma Pritchard, Nell Moore, Tom, Agnes, Charley and Bertha Boggs, Hildgard Roffe, Eloise Thomas, George Gannell, Ben Thomas, Fannie and Sallie Freese, Maggie and Frank Savage and Cam Layne.

These are only a few of the many ex-Louisians that on the spur of the moment we recall. However your scribble has not been very familiar with the old town for the last twenty years and others of more recent vintage may take up the list where we left off.

It may be observed that few of these mentioned may be classed as "spring chickens." That commodity will, we feel sure, be abundantly in evidence during the period of the home coming. What a grand jubilation it will be to have all of these and many others gather around one great camp fire in the old home town during the beautiful month of October.

With cordial good wishes for the success of your most laudable undertaking and a promise to help boost, I am,
Most sincerely,
W. R. M.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

A COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIDE.

My Little House.

I wish I had a little house
Within a little garden plot.
With just a tiny square of lawn
To bleach the household linen on!

A sweetbriar bush beside the door
And honeysuckle in the hedge;
A shady porch along one side
Where I can sit in all my pride.

From door to hedge a path of brick.
Bordered by box and brilliant bloom,
An apple tree against the wall
Laden with ripe fruit in the fall.

Beyond the hedge a country road,
Beyond wide fields and farmsteads gray!

Oh, I can see it all so plain,
See it in sunshine and in rain!

I can hear, too, the robins sing
At sunrise in the apple boughs,
And I can hear the meadow lark
Between the daylight and the dark.

I smell the bush beside the door,
The honeysuckle in the hedge,
And in the fields across the way
The fragrance of the farmers' hay.

Is it a dream? It seems so clear,
With bush and tree, and hedge and walk
And just that tiny square of lawn
To bleach the household linen on!

—Elisa Van Wyck.

"Good sportmanship in marriage" is a sure antidote for the divorce evil, according to Thomas F. Graham, Judge of the Supreme Court, of the State of California. He says marriage is to be regarded as a fifty-fifty proposition. Preparedness is essential with follow-up of tact, patience, tolerance, honesty, humor and an infinite capacity for forgiveness. The increase in divorce is attributed to sportiness and the lack of sportmanship.

As a remedy for this growing evil it is suggested that no girl should be permitted to marry until she has a practical knowledge of housekeeping. She should be instructed in both prenatal and postnatal care of children and she should be made to see that marriage is a matter of give and take. No man should become a husband without a clean bill of health and without the ability to earn a wage sufficient to keep himself and his wife comfortable and with an outlook for children.

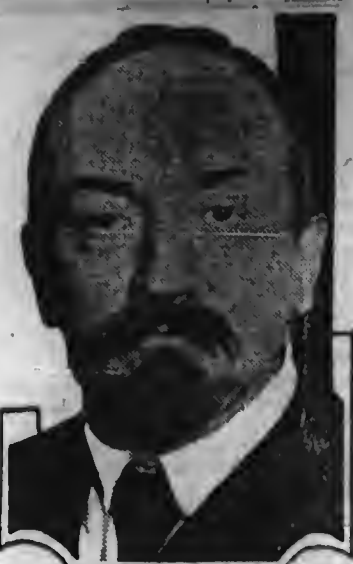

Judge Graham thinks if these rules were followed there would be a rapid decrease in the number of divorces and undoubtedly he is correct. However, it is going to take a lot of education to make people realize this and to make them go against the strong urge of human nature. When two young people decide they want to marry, it takes a whole lot to make them atop and consider the education of the wife as far as the care of children are concerned, the ability to cook or the wage earning capacity of the husband. Such considerations come only with age and wisdom.

Lady Astor, the first woman to gain a seat in the English Parliament and who is paying a visit to her native country, America, believes that the only way to improve conditions is to instill in the children a desire for better lives. And she is correct, for the little children of today will be the law makers or the law-breakers of tomorrow.

On the mothers and fathers rests the burden of the future welfare of the country and God grant that they may live up to their responsibility.

He appeals with the mothers to play fair with youths. The most potent influence today in the lives of boys and girls are the movies, popular literature, and the social life which comprises the prevalent extravagances in music, dancing, fashion and the free indulgence of liquor. Youth will respond to its better self when the appeal is clear and compelling.

SOUR STOMACH INDIGESTION

Theford's Black-Draught Highly Recommended by a Tennessee Grocer for Troubles Resulting from Torpid Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.—The efficiency of Theford's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver.

"I have known and used it for years, and can and do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr. Parsons describes—valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in cleansing the bowels of impurities.

Theford's Black-Draught liver medicine is the original and only genuine. Accept no imitations or substitutes. Always ask for Theford's. E 63

Never before could you get so much tire worth for $10.90

AR-OWNERS who bought a 30x3 1/2 "Usco" for $10.90 last Fall have discovered this by now—

Nobody before ever got so much tire value in the neighborhood of ten dollars.

They never had to question the quality—with the makers of U. S. Royal Cords behind it.

They couldn't help admiring the price—spontaneously made to meet the new economy times.

A tire that would be high value at more than $10.90.

At $10.90 it is unapproached.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Brave the storm and ride the gale!
What if now or then you fall
What if difficulties rise?
Just ahead the victory lies.
Keep in mind when you're assailed,
Every conqueror has failed.

Trials mark the path of men,
Hope has dawned to set again.
Many a victor cheered today,
Had to battle with dismay;
Long before success he knew
He was called a failure, too.

Failures mark the path of fame,
Men must fight thru loss and shame,
Hurt and heartache and distress,
For the glory of success!
Every leader on the earth
Has been tested for his worth.

Brave the loss and bear the blow!
What if hope shall come and go?
What if failure strikes at you?
Keep the faith and fight anew,
Keep your courage when assailed,
Few succeed who've never failed.

A Thanksgiving in The Kentucky Mountains.

In the mountains of Eastern Kentucky there lived a very happy family of mountaineers. Now Mr. Brown, for that was his name, had two sturdy sons and three beautiful daughters. His wife had long been dead and Katy the oldest daughter, was mother and housekeeper to the family.

It was just two days until Thanksgiving and everything was in confusion about the house, for Tom, the oldest boy, and Mary, were expected to arrive home from college just any time now. Bob and Sallie were only high school students and so were attending the school in Somerset, not far from their home. They were helping Katy to get ready for Thanksgiving and wanted to show Tom and Mary a "big time" while they were at home.

Bob, Katy and Sallie were sitting around the fire one evening when Bob suddenly exclaimed:

"Say girl, I know what would be great fun for all of us to do while Tom and Mary are here."

"Now what kind of an idea have you in mind," said Katy.

"Oh yes to tell us," said Sallie.

"Well girls guess I'll give you three guesses each and if you don't guess it then I will tell you," Bob exclaimed.

"A hunting trip or a hike," said Katy.

"A fishing trip," chirped Sallie.

"Oh, just listen to her will you, a fishing trip on Thanksgiving," said Bob.

"Don't you know that it is too cold to fish on Thanksgiving, you silly goose?"

"I am not a silly goose for they do fish on Thanksgiving some places, I guess I know," said Sallie.

"Oh, all right then, you're not a silly goose then, but guess again," said Bob.

"A party or a marshmallow toast," said Sallie.

"Wrong again," said Bob.

"Do tell us please Bob, for we can't guess another thing," said the girls.

"Well here goes then, let's have a barn dance," said Bob.

"That will be great fun, when shall we have it?" asked the girls.

"Thanksgiving night, and don't tell Tom and Mary, let's surprise them," said Bob.

"Geel! won't they be surprised tho?" said Sallie.

This was agreed upon by all three and was to be a great surprise for Tom and Mary. They arrived home the evening before Thanksgiving, but there was not much talking done that night, because Tom and Mary were too tired to talk much. But the next day was spent in talking over old times.

The great night rolled around at last and when Tom and Mary arrived from town where they had been doing some shopping the barn was lighted with many curious colored lights and this looked so unusual that Tom and Mary went to investigate the matter.

Arriving at the door they were met with shouts of laughter and many smiling faces. They needed no invitation to join in the fun, but took off their coats and joined in the fun, and there was merrymaking and feasting until a late hour when every one left for home very tired but happy.

The next day Tom and Mary left for college to study hard for they would soon return home for the Christmas holidays. They were expecting great "times" then ever for they would have two whole weeks to make merry in and could enjoy another barn dance. They had indeed spent a very happy Thanksgiving, thanks to their brother and sisters.

Our State Government.

In Kentucky the law making body is officially known as the General Assembly. So in order to keep the districts nearly equal in population the legislature re-districts the state every ten years.

We have representatives from each district and the term is two years for each representative the salary is ten dollars per day during the sixty legislative days of a biennial session, with an additional fifteen cents for each mile traveled for one round trip from the member's home to the capital. This also holds true for the Senator except his term is for four years. The regular session begins on the Tuesday after the first Monday in January in the even-numbered years.

The qualification for a representative is that no person shall be a representative who, at the time of his or her election, is not a citizen of Kentucky who has not resided in this state two years next preceding his or her election who has not attained the age of twenty-four years or has not resided the last year in the country, town or city for which he or she may be chosen.

The highest court in Kentucky is known as the Court of Appeals which sits at Frankfort. Its seven judges are elected for a term of eight years in five thousand dollars each. The on a district ticket and their salary chief justice is the one that has been longest in service on the Court of Appeals bench. This court hears cases appealed from circuit courts and its decision is final on any matter involving state affairs. The clerk of the Court of Appeals is elected at the same time as the governor and serves for four years.

The governor is elected for four years and is ineligible for the next term, his salary is sixty-five hundred dollars and he has the use of a mansion at Frankfort. In Kentucky the governor has no control over other state officers elected with him.

The governor must be at least thirty years of age and have been a citizen and a resident of Kentucky for at least six years next preceding his election.

CITIZENSHIP

The country is not suffering from bad citizens. No country ever suffered from such.

Our country is suffering from the bad citizenship of good citizens. Communities, states, and nations have no better government than the negligent citizen produces. The responsibility for bad government rests upon the negligent citizen, the absentee from the ballot box, and the man who is dodging his civic duty.

The business man and the banker use every possible means to escape jury duty. They are traitors to good government. You hear business and professional men say that they are not interested in politics; that they are not politicians. Then they are undesirable citizens. They are responsible for all the errors in government and corruption in office. It is impossible for a taxpayer, a home owner, an honest man to stay out of politics. If he stays out of politics, he is a traitor to government, an enemy to his home, and he is a burden to all the other taxpayers. Because of his neglect to perform his duty, he increases the taxes of all the people.

What is politics? It is the science of government. The science of good government. Then every man, woman, and child ought to be forced to study the science of government. And every man ought to be a practical, common sense, persistent, courageous, everlasting politician. When men get so pious, so good, and so busy that they cannot afford to perform their plain political and civic duties they become a curse to society, a menace to government, a burden to the taxpayer, a blight on citizenship, and a stench in the nostrils of God.

The average business man is a consummate coward, and it is his infamous cowardice that has plunged this country into innumerable errors. Out of the cowardice of business men we have filled the legislatures and the Congress of the United States with spineless men; consequently, we legislate under the whip lash of a party master or we fail to legislate because of timidity and cowardice. The common public is unrepresented and suffers untold burdens because of the bad citizenship of good citizens.

POEM BY UNCLE JOHN

WHO WOULDN'T?

Come, faithful Muse, and let me jingle—my soul would swell in lyric chat; with heavenly strains my lyre would tingle if some kind friend would hold my hat I'd grease my lute with country butter, and trim it's crown with country ham—and, Lordy, how I'd squawk and flutter, at biscuits smeared with country ham! I am would chant of country sausage, and eke the juicy pumpkin pie, washed down with sips of country cider, nor pass the country doughnut by. My country 'tis of thee superior—each rural gem the ribbon takes; there is no nook in my interior, that welcomes punk machine-made cakes. Avaunt, avaunt, ye patent fodder contrived by chemists in their lairs—I hate the truck embalmed in solder, their anti-septic prunes and pears. O, lead me to the country table, where germs and toxins are not known, and there, with Folly Ann and Mabel, we'll carve the fowl and chew the pone.

Volume XXXVII, Number 36.

LOUISA, LAWRENCE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, MAY 12, 1922.

PEACEFUL END
OF MAN ONCE A
NOTED FEUDISTJohns Hatfield, Son of the Late "Devil Anse" Hatfield, Passes Away of Heart Trouble.

Johns Hatfield, oldest son of the late "Devil Anse" Hatfield, died suddenly of heart trouble Wednesday night, April 19, while crossing the mountain between the left and right forks of Ben creek. He had been in his usual health and strength and was in Williamson the early part of the week attending the trial of his nephews, Craig and John Hatfield, for the murder of George Cantrell, says the Williamsons, W. Va. News.

When the Hatfield-McCoy feud was in full-tide a generation ago, Johns Hatfield was reputed to be one of the most active participants therein. He and his father and his brother, Anderson (Doc) now a peaceful and prosperous citizen of Logan, were the recognized leaders of the Hatfield clan. John's career as a feudist was terminated when Kentucky officers arrested him on the Tug river side and took him by force to Pikeville. There he was tried and convicted for the murder of Alafair McCoy, one of several killed when the Randall McCoy home, near what is now Hardy, was burned to the ground. He was sentenced to the Kentucky penitentiary for life, but was released after serving 13 years.

In later years he has been regarded as one of Mingo's good and substantial citizens. He was about 62 years old. For quite a long time he had been employed by the Glen Alum Coal Co. as a watchman. He was born at the old Hatfield homestead, near Dermott and spent most of his life in that vicinity.

Returning home after attending court here, he and Mrs. Als Hatfield, a neighbor and a relative by marriage started out to find their respective sons and to bring them to Williamson to answer to indictments returned by the April grand jury. Astride two mules they started across the mountains. There was a strong wind that night. The wind blew out his lantern and Hatfield dismounted to recandle it. As he did so, he said to his companion, "I'm about to faint," and then fell on his hands and knees and presently rolled over on his back, unconscious.

Mrs. Hatfield, with a flashlight in her hand, ran to his side and saw that he was dying. After putting her coat under his head and making him as comfortable as possible, she ran to the home of Charles Ellis, half a mile away. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis went back with her only to find that death had preceded them. In a short time the body was removed to the home of Craig Hatfield.

Johns Hatfield had been married several times and is survived by a number of children. His last wife, who survives, was the widow of the late Andy Toler. He is also survived by his mother, living on Island creek, near Omar, Logan county, and several brothers and sisters.

Worthless Check
Puts Man in Jail

A man giving his name as Landon Maynard, 48 years old, claiming West Virginia as his home, who taken into custody at the N. & W. depot at Portsmouth, Ohio, and placed in the county jail where he is held for alleged attempting to pass a $2.00 worthless check issued on the First National Bank of Williamson, W. Va.

According to the officers the prisoner approached a number of persons about the passenger station in an effort to induce them to cash the check which Maynard, it is claimed, following his arrest, admitted was fraudulent.

CONGRESSMAN FIELDS.

Elkfork, Ky., April 28, 1922. I am in touch with Congressman Hon. W. J. Fields. He informs me he is a candidate for re-election. I write this article for print in your valuable paper in favor of Mr. Fields re-election.

I want to call the attention of all people in the 9th Congressional district of Kentucky, Mr. Fields has in his work in Congress that representative for all the people of all political parties. I call the attention of the soldiers of all wars. Congressman Fields has never failed to go to their relief for justice in the pension department and the war-risk bureau. I am a Civil War veteran. As Mr. Fields and I have worked together in the interest of the soldiers, I will say to the soldier element, we cannot get a Congress member that will take more interest in behalf of the soldier than Mr. Fields has. We should all be in favor of holding Fields in Congress.

HENRY M. HUTCHISON.

PIKE SLAYER PARDONED.

Governor Morrow Monday pardoned John Keens, Pike county prisoner, living five years for manslaughter. Keens was pardoned because his wife permanently disabled and the Salvation Army has been taking care of her and two children, the older one 4 years old.

PORTIA WITH A RECORD

Miss Pauline F. M. Floyd, of Washington, D. C., the youngest lawyer ever admitted to the bar, now has the distinction of being the youngest lawyer to argue a case before the U. S. Supreme Court. Twenty-four years old, she has practiced law three years, being graduated before she was twenty-one. The young woman has never lost a case.

Henry Ford Educates
Kentucky Children

Buried in a hollow of the big black mountains of Kentucky are two isolated schools which are surprisingly similar in conditions and methods to the centralized schools to be found all over the United States.

These two schools are where miners' children learn their reading, 'rithmetic, and other subjects. They are far above the ordinary hill schools in Kentucky, which are, mainly, to their being located in two mining camps, that Henry Ford owns. They are Kentucky county schools located two miles apart; one at each end of Ford camp. The daily attendance in each school is ninety-seven pupils.

A year ago it was far below that. This because the compulsory school law was in lax enforcement and because, so Ford mine officials state, the grade of teachers was low because of small State pay.

When Ford took over his two mines, one of the main outside interests was turned to the children of the miners. Pressure was brought to make every child attend class.

To the $50 a month, for a six months' term, allowed by the State, the mine added another hundred and hired a first class superintendent. Then another $100 was put up by the mine for an assistant teacher. This was for a six months' period. The schools run nine months, however, and the mine pays all of the salary for the other three months.

W. D. Martin, superintendent at the school at Mine No. 1, teaches the top four grades. Miss Myrtle Bennett his assistant, teaches the first four. The same plan is worked at Camp No. 2.

It is the aim of Henry Ford to see that the miners' children get an education, says Abner Lunsford, general manager of the Ford mines. "We do not want to contribute to the already swollen ranks of illiteracy in this State."

And the kids themselves? Conditions have been made such that a truant officer has a soft job down here. The kids really enjoy their school now. —Middlesboro Three States.

Sister of Ollie James
May Run for Congress

It is believed at Middlesboro that Mrs. J. F. Gordon, wife of former Circuit Judge J. F. Gordon, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Second Congressional District, opposing Congressman D. H. Kincheloe, also of that city.

Mrs. Gordon is the sister of the late United States Senator Ollie M. James and is one of the best women speakers in Kentucky. She is an active club woman and has done valiant work for her party. Should she become a candidate and win the nomination, which would insure election, she would be the first woman Kentucky has sent to Congress.

Congressman Kincheloe is serving his fourth term in Congress and has not been opposed in his own party since his first election.

CHARLES R. NASH.

Charles R. Nash was born January 19, 1846, in Peterboro, N. Y. He moved to Syracuse, N. Y., at an early age and engaged in the manufacture of harnesses. This business occupied his life until he retired thirteen years ago, when he came to make his home with his son.

Mr. Nash died after an illness of eight weeks caused by the infirmities of old age.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. A. L. Herr, and son, G. A. Nash, secretary-manager of the Ashland Chamber of Commerce; both of Ashland.

Chauncey Depew's Views on His 88th Birthday

New York, April 22.—"I see more hope for the future of the world on my eighty-eighth birthday anniversary than on any other anniversary in the last seven years," declared Chauncey M. Depew, who will be 88 years young to-morrow. "I think that all wars will be stopped and that we are about to enter upon an era of universal peace."

"I feel like a man of 48 years, and not 88," said Mr. Depew. "There is no such thing as age, if one does not think about it."

"To me the world is like a garden. You can't pull up all the weeds, but you can grow in it the things you like. I think the young girls of today are just as good as their grandmothers were, and short skirts are to be preferred to hoop skirts."

"If I could not control my appetites, or had rheumatism or indigestion I would think the world was going to the bow-wow."

"I have no food fads nor exercise fads."

"My advice to young men is: Stick to the old home and the old church. The salvation of the world today lies in hard work and faith."

Senator Tabor Marries
in Carter County

State Senator Bannie Tabor of Olive Hill, has been a busy man the past several months, looking after the interests of his constituents at Frankfort, but neither politics nor business pursuits have caused him to be a laggard in traveling the old, old path of love and romance. For some time it has been whispered around that Bannie had become smitten with the smiles of one of Carter county's estimable ladies, and today (Thursday) at Wolf he will be united in marriage to Mrs. Corrie Prater, widow of Wilson Prater. The maiden name was Snidbury and she is a native of Floyd county.

The bridal couple will spend two weeks in Lexington and other Central Kentucky points, after which they will reside in Olive Hill. While Bannie is not at Frankfort, he is a traveling salesman and is well liked throughout his territory. —Grayson Journal.

CONVICTS ESCAPE FROM FRANKFORT PRISON

Frankfort, Kentucky.—Devising saws from steel ribs taken from canvas leggings, Leonard Crawford, awaiting transportation to the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta for post office robbery, and William Williams, ex-convict, awaiting review of his conviction for passing a forged check, cut the corner of the steel lining from the cell in the Franklin county jail, prised bricks loose with a bar torn off a cot, escaped.

The pair escaped from the old death cell on the third floor, letting themselves down to the ground with blankets. As an extra precaution, because Crawford had broken jail twice at Pikeville, Jailer George M. Winters, who has been ill with influenza, placed two extra guards on watch.

ANOTHER POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL?

Miss Isabelle Rockefeller

With the arrival in New York of little Violette Helene de Talleyrand, daughter of the former Anna Gould, and sometimes called the poor little rich girl in charge of a maid, come renewed reports of domestic difference between the Duke and his American wife. Little Violette was almost sent to Ellis Island on her arrival, being rescued at the crucial moment by her aunt, Mrs. Finley J. Shepard, formerly Helen Gould. While Violette was being detained, Miss Isabelle Rockefeller, daughter of Percy Rockefeller, made entry on her return to America without difficulty.

Miss de Talleyrand

DR. F. F. SHANNON.

The Courier-Journal of April 16th publishes a picture of Rev. Dr. Frederick F. Shannon, of Chicago, following by the following sketch:

The Rev. Dr. Frederick Shannon, a Kentuckian, after fifteen years as pastor of the Reformed Church on the Heights, Brooklyn, has been called to the Central Church, Chicago, one of the most prominent pastorates in the country, succeeding the Rev. Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus.

Dr. Gunsaulus, on hearing of Dr. Shannon's acceptance, declared: "To see my precious church pass into the hands of my beloved friend is more than I could have dreamed of, through all the years in which I have seen him growing stronger and sweeter, more eloquent and tender, and now one of the outstanding heralds of the Great Gospel."

"I have not dared to speak of him with that fullness of admiration and reverence which are in my heart and mind, because such characterization might create for him problems which he would not care to solve, for he is a laborer in the vineyard of Christ and has no master but the Lord of the vineyard."

Dr. Shannon, now ranked with the greatest of religious minds, was born at Louisa in the Sandy Valley. It is said he and his family will tour the State and visit relatives in Kentucky this summer.

THE CHURCH CHEAT.

Church support is an obligation. Church attendance is a duty. Worship is absolutely essential. And every honest man and woman discharges these duties and obligations every week. Contributions of time, talent, thought, and interest are demanded. It is an honor to give. It is an honor, privilege, and duty to give. We are God's stewards. All we have been entrusted to us. It is our duty to support the church. The Christian church has created and added fifty cents of every dollar's worth of property in America.

Every time one goes to church he should make an honest, conscientious contribution to the great work of the church. When the collection plate reaches one his honor, sincerity, integrity, and character are immediately tested and when he, because he imagines no eye sees him, puts upon the plate pennies when he ought to put pounds hands himself before God and the Bar of God as a thief. He is perfectly willing to pay an extravagant sum to go to a filthy theater, questionable show, or suggestive screen

COL. J. R. JOHNSON.

Last week we mentioned the fact that Prof. J. R. Johnson, a native of Louisa, had been appointed a Colonel on the Governor's staff. Here is what the Lexington newspapers say about it:

The Herald says:—J. R. Johnson, known to his friends best as "Dick," professor of applied mechanics in the engineering college of the university, received notices Saturday that he had been appointed by Governor Morrow to the post of a colonel on the governor's staff. Dick explains that he is just a plain Kentucky colonel by executive appointment.

An interesting feature of the appointment is the fact that Colonel Dick is an old-fashioned, rampant, Kentucky Democrat, while the administration is Republican.

The Leader:—"Professor J. R. Johnson, 130 Bell Court, East, a member of the engineering faculty of the University of Kentucky, has been appointed a colonel on the staff of Governor Edwin P. Morrow, according to an announcement made at the Mansion at Frankfort Saturday."

Colonel Johnson was the first graduate of the College of Engineering at the University, having received his degree in 1893, and since that time he has been a civil engineer in the State and has since been a member of the faculty of the engineering college. He is a Democrat but has never been active in politics.

Colonel Johnson is the only member of the University faculty upon whom the Governor has conferred this honor. His home was formerly in Richmond.

JEWS ARE SAVED BY
COL. MORROW, REPORT

Frankfort, Ky., April 20.—The story by a Corporal in the command of Lieut. Col. Charles H. Morrow in Russia of how the Kentucky officer saved a congregation of Jews at worship in a Siberian village from a pogrom about to be instituted by Gen. Gregor Semenov's Cossacks and Mongols has been printed in a Jewish paper recently. Hearing that the Cossack chief had ordered an attack on Yom Kippur, Colonel Morrow sent word that if the Jews were molested the American troops would protect them.

WEST VA. SCHOOL
IN M'DOWELL CO.
REPORTS PERFECTJ. F. Harrison, of Wayne, is Principal, and Miss Chattie Sullivan, Teacher,
in This School.

The following is from the Bluefield, W. Va., Telegraph:

The McDowell County Dental Clinic, under the directorship of G. T. Epling, finished their work at the Big Sandy school, Brown's creek district, January 21. This school made 100 per cent which means that each pupil in the system, in which there are 186 pupils in attendance, has had his or her teeth examined by one of the dentists of the clinic and if necessary teeth either filled or extracted.

One of the interesting facts brought about by this work is that the pupils in the school that have perfect teeth have made a record in school attendance and in case they were absent from school during the present term, their excuses show that their sickness was not caused by any digestive trouble.

Twenty-five per cent of the children had no work for the dentists to do, which was an increase of fifteen per cent over last year and nearly twenty-five per cent increase over two years ago. This is attributed to the fact that their teeth were left in perfect condition last year by the clinics and they were taught by the hygienists to properly care for their teeth.

In the fifth grade room, Miss Chattie Sullivan, teacher, had worked a teeth project since the hygienists were here last year. Through the help of the Colgate Company a close checking system was used on each pupil. The result was the grade had one-third of the pupils with teeth in perfect condition. These children have practically all made perfect attendance and are noted throughout the system for their personal cleanliness and excellent school work.

J. Floyd Harrison of Wayne is principal of the school.

This community was fortunate in having two excellently trained and particularly energetic dentists to do the dental work: Dr. Greenburg, of Harvard Dental College, and Caudill of Baltimore Dental College. Both are experienced in clinic work.

After the work was finished it was inspected by Dr. Epling, who went to the various rooms of the system. He also searched for symptoms of malnutrition. These cases were advised about the proper diet to make them grow. Each grade was given a short demonstration of what proper feeding will do for the growing body.

The climax of the dental work was reached when the community meeting was held at the Recreation Hall at Big Sandy Monday, March 20. All the pupils of the system were brought to this room by the various teachers. Several parents were in attendance.

POEM BY UNCLE JOHN

PESSIMISM.

Friend let me utter it, under my breath,—ain't it a right to be governed to death? Think of the pitiless riders we tote, spurring us deeper each time that we vote! Taxes increase and Liberty squeezed—freedom befettered, deformed and diseased—luxuries,—things that we seldom may find, covered with "license" to fatten the grind. Legislate constant, and legislate strong—many of fools that must boost it all! I have grown weary with burden of tax, weary of blood-suckers, sucking our backs! Prone to rebel, I'll soon could win. Galling with the fix we are in. Dirty poltroons with a surplus of greed, suck up our earnings and rob us of feed. Hence I am muttering, under my breath, Lord, it's a shame, to be governed to death.

You can verify Louisa endorsement. Read this:
Wm. Clay, Railroad St., says: "It's about five years ago since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, but from past experience, I have no hesitation in recommending them. My kidneys were in a weak and disordered condition and I was greatly annoyed having to get up so often during the night to pass the kidney secretions. They were highly colored and deposited sediment. My back was so painful I couldn't stoop to pull on my shoes of a morning. One of the family advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I began taking them and it didn't take Doan's long to fix me up in good shape."

MONEY RAISING SALE

NOW ON! THURSDAY, May 11

Will Continue Until Saturday, May 20--Not One Hour Longer

My entire stock of new and up-to-date merchandise will be placed on sale at the mercy of the people regardless of what the result may be. I am bound to raise $5000.00 during my 9 days sale. If it takes my entire stock to do that I will raise it. I know some of you will say Jake doesn't need money. But I will say I am not broke, but am involved in different business, which puts me in a hard place. Therefore, will place the entire stock on sale at prices that will make competition sit up and study. Nevertheless I have no apologies to make. I need the money and you need the goods. So come THURSDAY, MAY 11, UNTIL SATURDAY, MAY 20 and I will assure you that you won't regret it. Nuff Said.

ATTENTION:—Every item will be marked in plain figures. Positively one price to all. Terms strictly cash. No credit extended to any one.

To give you an idea of the wonderful bargains will quote a small price list. Should I dare to mention every item it would require a 24-page newspaper. So whatever you don't see mentioned, when you come you will see everything on sale.
